C. R. Rozum Claims Lovely Bride in Sunday Ceremony

In a beautiful ceremony performed Sunday afternoon in Nativity Catholic Church Miss Marilyn Jean Franzen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Franzen of 2870 Carson street became the bride of Charles Raymond Rozum, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Rozum of 1754 Flower street. Rev. J. P. McGuinness, pastor, officiated in the presence of 200 wedding guests.

Miss Franzen wore a gown of white bridal satin and carried a bouquet of white carnations, gardenias and bouvardia, centered with an exquisite white orchid. Her full-length veil was held with a coronet of seed pearls. Attending her were her sister, Miss Joyce Franzen, as maid of honor and the Misses Sally Valencia and Shirley Way as bridesmaids. They wore identically fashioned satin gowns in Puritan design. The maid of honor was in orchid and bridesmaids wore yellow and aqua respectively. Matching halo hats and bouquets of gladioli in contrasting colors completed their costumes.

Don Little, USCG, of Bakerfield, attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Robert Azaveda, USCG and Edward Gavatta of San Diego. Preceding the ceremony Miss Mary Lou Way, cousin of the bride, sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

At the reception in parish hall which immediately followed, Mrs. Franzen received her guests in teat creep with dark brown accessories and a corsage of orchids, and Mrs. Rozum wore plum crepe, black accessories and orchids.

Upon their return from a honeymoon at an undisclosed destination, the couple will establish their home at the Mayfair Apartments, which the bridegroom will report for duty in Alaska.

Rev. Roger W. Sawyer read the marriage lines, and attendants were Miss Duane Holstein and Jack Nelson.

The simple rites were followed by a wedding supper in Los Angeles for the happy couple, their attendants, and immediate families.

The new Mrs. Tuffli is a graduate of Narbonne High School, summer class of 1947, attended Long Beach City College for two years and was a senior at the University of California at Los Angeles last year where she was a Kappa Delta.
